

MONEY MATTERS

The United States has recognized April as Financial Literacy Month since 2003. Financial literacy is something we can benefit from at all stages of life. From saving for a college education to getting by in retirement, having some basic financial know-how can help avoid barriers in home purchases, retirement planning and other financial choices.

Getting started early helps. That's why several Community Bank employees volunteer for Junior Achievement (JA). Employees who volunteer teach fun-filled, easy-to-follow lessons, while bringing their own personal experiences in business, personal finance and career preparation into the classroom. By being a JA volunteer and sharing firsthand experiences, employees interact with students in the community to help them make the connection between what they are learning in school and what they need to succeed in work and life.

Thanks to our volunteer employees for making an impact within the communities we call home!

Sincerely,
Quentin Beadell
President of Community Bank

Junior Achievement's purpose is to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy. Community Bank employees share their personal and professional experiences and skills with students from the surrounding communities.

We will once again be sponsoring the annual Spring musical at MSU; this year's play is Willy Wonka. As the title sponsor, we will host a preview night on April 8th to see the final production before it hits the stage. All Primetime members will receive an invitation in the mail with instructions on how to RSVP. Invitations should be in your mailbox around the 3rd week in March.
